

Why Become a Supporter of the Guru Ram Das Center for Medicine & Humanology?

Your donations ensure reliable, ongoing support for our services to thousands of people worldwide. The Guru Ram Das Center for Medicine & Humanology provides direct services to individuals recovering from illnesses and support for their families.

Our work extends into the health care field through our training of nurses, physicians, social workers, physical therapists, counselors, and other health care professionals. In addition, we are forming collaborative relationships with other research organizations to study the medical effects of Kundalini Yoga and Meditation.

Become a part of a caring team of people who make these services possible! You will receive quarterly Guru Ram Das Center Team updates in the form of two E-bulletins which will inform you of our new services, trainings, workshops, and products and two in-depth newsletters per year. Please join us!
